

“MLK, Jr., Epistles and Prophets”

Join us on Wednesday, April 4 at 5:30 PM at SsAM for a contemplative Eucharist in commemoration of the 50th anniversary of the assassination of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Join us for a simple soup and salad supper and discussion, facilitated by Emily Gibson and using the video curriculum “Three Epistles on Race on America”, on the three following Thursdays (April 12, 19, 26) beginning at 5:30 PM and ending at 7:15 PM. As you are able, please bring soup or salad to share.

In observance of the deep and lasting impact of Dr. King’s ministry, Trinity Church Wall Street is offering the video curriculum below for use by individuals or in group education settings.

The speaker series, “Three Epistles on Race in America,” explores contemporary black/white relationships using writings that, while perhaps lesser known than King’s famous “I have a dream” oratory, resonate powerfully today. The speakers are New York City journalist Errol Louis, New York University professor and poet Fred Moten, and Trinity’s Vicar, Phil Jackson. Hear their challenging examinations of three civil-rights era letters from Dr. King, James Baldwin, and Thomas Merton, and share them with friends in your community.

The interview segment features Trinity’s Director of Justice and Reconciliation, Winnie Varghese, in conversation with civil rights icon and public theologian Ruby Sales. Together, they explore King’s prophetic voice, and look for hope in history.
